IRON COUNTY RECORD.

OLD FOLKS BANQUETTED.

Honored With Sumptuous Repast at Tabernacle.

PROGRAM OF SPEECHES, SONGS, ETC.

Guests Escorted in Carriages to City
Reservoir and the Branch
Normal Buildings.

The annual Old Folks party was held in the tabernacle and Ward hall yesterday, at which a majority of the boys and girls of Cedar over the age of sixty were the special care of the old folks party committee.

In the forenoon the guests were taken in carriages to visit the Branch Normal, where they were received by Principal Decker and shown through the buildings.

At 12:30 they sat down to a sumptuous repast in the tabernacle that had been provided by the indefatigable committee, after which a happy speech of welcome was delivered by Daniel T. Leigh, who exhibited ability in this line that few people had suspected him of possessing.

This was followed by one of Professor Cosslett's nicely rendered quartets, after which one of the highly respected veterans, Mr. John V. Adams, replied to the speech of welcome. We regret that lack of space prevents us from publishing these speeches in full, as they contained many nice sentiments.

Following the speeches was a pleasant hour spent in social chat, and a review of old times by the different members of the party, who gathered in little knots or companies in different parts of the room, as they felt disposed.

Later they were taken up to the reservoir at the had of the water system in carriages for an afternoon's drive, returning from which they were entertained by singing, in which all or nearly all took part. Prof. Cosslett, as is usual on such occasions, contributed the lion's share to this part of the entertainment, and was ably assisted by a number of our other talented musicians. The gramophone was also in evidence, to the delight of the company.

Altogether a most agreeable day was spent. At the conclusion most of the old folks were taken home in carriages. Great credit is due the committee, prominent among whom we noticed Hon. John Parry, Eugene Schoppmann, Judge Charles M. Ahlstrom, William Houchen and David Haight, and of course, their ladies. There were doubtless other members of the committee who were as much entitled to mention, but we do not recall their names.

Socialists Convention.

The socialists held their county convention in this city last week, and we fully intended to publish the names of their nominees in our last issue, but press of business and sickness in the editor's family prevented us from remembering it in the season thereof.

The nominees, as far as the positions were filled, are: For commissioner, long term, Nathan Benson; short term, LaFayette McConnell; clerk, Daniel Leigh; attorney, Rupert E. Lee Wixom; Sheriff, Wm. J. McConnell; assessor, Joseph Stevenson; treasurer, Richard Williams.

The chairman and secretary of the meeting with one other member of the party, whom they were authorized to select, were appointed a committee to fill vacancies occurring on the ticket prior to the election. It is the Socialists' intention to hold a rally soon to wake up their adherents preparatory to the final event next month.

Robert Platt of Pinto spent a few days in Cedar this week with old school chums and other friends. Mr. Platt came over for the purpose of bringing his sister, Maria Platt, who had business in town before entering upon her duties as teacher in the Enterprise school, which she has engaged to teach this winter.

Democratic Convention.

The democrats of Iron county held their convention in Parowan last Monday, at the county court house. We were unable to have a representative present and have failed to find any democrat who has taken enough interest in the matter to give us a statement of the proceedings, but we have learned that the convention was a quiet, orderly and peaceable one.

We are indebted to Mr. M. H. Dalley for the names of the nominees, which are as follows:

For representative to legislature, Hon. John Parry; commissioners, long term, Charles Adams, short term, Jonathan Prothro; county clerk, William J. Gurr; recorder, Miss Ada McGregor; attorney, James Olorton; sheriff, Mahouri M. Decker; assessor, Eugene Schoppmann; treasurer, Donald C. Urie; surveyor, E. J. Palmer; superintendent of public instruction, Mayhew H. Dalley.

If any other business was transacted we failed to learn of it.

Had "Jim-Jams."

County Attorney E. H. Ryan and Sheriff Froyd made a flying trip out to Stateline the fore part of the week in answer to a telephone message advising them that there was a case of insanity there that demanded attention. They left Cedar Tuesday and arrived in the camp of Stateline on Wednesday. Investigation proved the patient to be Ed. Lynch, a miner of that place who spends the greater part of his time in his cabin up the canyon. The history of his case as near as the officers were able to learn was about as follows:

Two weeks ago, or thereabouts, Lynch was taken ill and suffered considerably with cramps. To drown his troubles and pains he resorted to alcoholic concoctions and at the time the telegram was sent for the officers, had succeeded in acquiring a good strong case of "jim-jams." He became violent and threatened the destruction of himself and almost everybody else he came in contact with, until it was found necessary to confine him in jail, and his trouble was diagnosed by the local officers of the law as insanity. By the time Messrs Ryan and Froyd arrived the effects of the liquor had worn away and the man had regained his reason. It was thought best, however, that he should change his surroundings for a time and it was accordingly decided to send him to Alta, Salt Lake county, where he has a sister residing.

On the way to Modena, the sister, who had been wired of her brother's condition, was met, and assumed charge of the unfortunate man, taking him back to Stateline, while the county officials returned to this city.

Saved Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today he is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung troubles yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for coughs and colds.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to an other.

H. A. Andelin returned last Sunday from an extensive tour of Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and Nebraska in the interests of B. F. Luke & Co., manufacturers of the Utah lay-off and pulverizer, which he reports found a ready sale among the merchants and jobbers. Since his return he has received a call to take a mission to Scandinavia, and states that he will leave Salt Lake November 23. Before starting Mr. Andelin desires to dispose of some of his loose effects, mention of which is made elsewhere in this issue.

One of Many.

H. A. Tisdale, of Summerton, S. C., suffered for twenty years with the piles. Specialists were employed and many remedies used, but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's, made by E. C. DeWitt & Co., in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ring-worm, skin diseases, etc.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SUMMIT.

Summit, Utah, Oct. 6, 1904.

Work on the canyon road is completed and the men went to Parowan today to sign up for their pay.

Bp. Jos. B. Dalley joined Francis Webster of Cedar City in a shipment of sheep to the Chicago market this week.

Mrs. John Huntington is again visiting her native town. We are always glad to welcome our friends home.

As a result of the distribution of the property belonging to the Hulet estate, James H. Dalley is in town looking after his wife's interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pratt, of Otto, Wyoming, are expected here tomorrow. They were recently married in Salt Lake City and will visit their many relatives and friends in this part of the country before returning to Big Horn.

NORMAL NOTES.

Mr. Mabey leaves for Salt Lake Tuesday on educational business.

Mrs. Driggs and Mrs. Tollestrup will reach Cedar on Wednesday next. Their husbands are naturally rejoicing, of course.

The musical interests of the school are being well taken care of. Band, orchestra and various singing clubs are being organized.

The school continues to grow in numbers. We stand at about the same place as last year, so far as registration is concerned.

The subject of children's literature has been a pet one with Mr. Driggs ever since he began to work in the English department.

The old people of Cedar City were welcome visitors at the Normal Friday. They reached the building at about noon, were taken to the assembly room, where the following program was given in their honor: Piano solo, Instructor Tollestrup; reading, Miss Spencer; song, Jennie Corry. After this the visitors were shown through the building. We are glad to receive you. Come again and often.

Assistant Principal Driggs has been appointed by State Superintendent Nelson to select a list of books for the public school libraries of the state. He is now at work with a flood of good books recently sent him by various publishing houses. Great care is being taken by Mr. Driggs to skim the cream of the world's best literature for our children and he promises a helpful list for parents and teachers about November 1st.

We have had a variety of good things said in chapel this week. Ernest Burgess, who called in Monday to bid us good-bye, gave some good suggestions on how students should act at home. On Tuesday we were favored with a talk by John Gardner, a student during the first years of the Normal. John, as many know, has spent four years in New Zealand since leaving us. Instructor Mabey gave some stirring thoughts this week also, along the line of live and keep sweet.

PAROWAN.

Parowan, Oct. 6, 1904.

Miss Snyder and Miss Messick are teaching the Presbyterian mission school this year.

Mrs. Maud Whitney Brown and husband of Idaho are visiting the lady's parents for a few weeks.

Mrs. Rose Clark entertained Sunday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. Ed. Anderson of Los Angeles, who left Monday for her home.

Her friends will be delighted to know that Mima Smith, formerly of Parowan, was married September 25th to Schuyler Ullrey at Chicago, and will be at home after Oct. 21, at South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. Ida Dalton is still a lingering sufferer, patiently awaiting her call to the other side, which she knows must soon come. Her previous illness has resulted in dropsy. Her people truly deserve our tenderest sympathy.

Principal J. S. Hanks, assisted by George Holt, James Ollerton, Jr., Etta Adams, Sarah Middleton, Josephine Gardner, May Jones and Minnie Hanson, opened the district school on Monday, with a very large attendance of students.

A little son of Thomas Durham's met with a serious accident Thursday evening. He was thrown from a horse, striking on his head and rendering him unconscious for some hours. We are pleased to report that he is improving nicely at this writing.

William Glassmann gave an intelligent talk last Tuesday in the opera hall, replying to Judge Powers' statements. Also argued that expansion was not imperialism, and gave his views on why even democrats should vote the republican ticket in the coming election.

Quite a representation from Parowan left Monday to attend conference at Salt Lake City, including Bishop Richards, L. N. Marsden, and wife, Thomas Taylor, Ann Ward, Pauline Lyman, Richard Rowley and wife, Edward Rowley, Lottie Frith, F. U. Nelson and Nora Taylor. It is understood that Lottie will return as Mrs. Edward Rowley, but how Nora would dispose of Frank, no information was given out.

KANARRA.

Kanarra, Oct. 6, 1904.

A terrific windstorm prevailed here last night.

Since our last communication the harvest has been almost completed.

The sheep men are preparing to dip their flocks at the Iron Springs.

Our district school is very much like a cow's tail about starting; it is always behind.

John Smith and Louis Belser are attending the general conference in Salt Lake.

The Y. L. M. I. A. girls are taking a lively interest in their work this season.

After tomorrow coal will be run out of the local mine by means of a car operated by either Will C. Reeves or Joseph H. Pollock.

The Dixie thresher has knocked out between two and three thousand bushels of grain in good shape, having been operated by a set of energetic men.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Rees J. Williams was obliged to undergo a surgical operation to relieve a badly swollen hand. Dr. Middleton performed the operation.

Our corn crop this year is excellent, and most of it has been grown without water. We shall soon know what the potato crop is like, as the field is to be cleared by the first Monday in November, at which time it will be opened for pasturage, every gate but one will be locked. At the unlocked one a keeper will be stationed and no animals will be admitted without his consent.

Last Sunday or Monday a man and team left the road near Camp Creek and went across the country to Stapley's reservoir, in order to reach which he had to cut, or rather break, four strands of barb wire. His object seems to have been to water his team, as he returned to the road on the same route as he went. If he had been as smart as he was strong, he would have come to town to water his team, as it was just as near, and he would not have laid himself liable to the law.

The St. George Temple closed last Friday for conference and will reopen Tuesday, Oct. 18.
